Hand-Delivery at Meeting at PPE

From our telephone conversation, I understand that you are representing yourself, pro se, in any and all matters before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), including the reexamination proceeding associated with U.S. Patent 7,099,837, and that you and/or another non-PPE attorney will handle each and every future action that is or may be associated with each file enclosed with this letter and/or any other matter previously associated with PPE.

From our telephone conversation, I understand that a potential or actual conflict of interest would exist for PPE to represent Source 3 Systems, LLC, as mentioned in the Press Release that you emailed to me on 14 January 2008. Thus, PPE will take no action on behalf of and will not represent Source 3 Systems, LLC.

I understand that you instruct and authorize me to file with the USPTO any communication necessary to withdraw from representation of you and/or EISA and to forward any future correspondence to you at the following address, and that if the USPTO forwards a communication to PPE then I should send any such communication to you at the following address, and that PPE shall then take no further action.

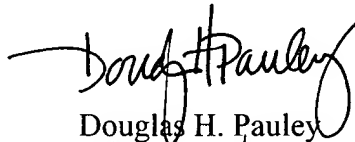

Mr. John Metsig
117 South Cook Street, #143
Barrington, Illinois 60010

I understand that you will communicate to PPE any future change of address to which PPE should send any such communication. I understand that you will communicate any necessary change of correspondence address notice to each appropriate party, so that future communications will not be directed to PPE.

If I misunderstood any instruction and/or communication, please respond immediately. Please acknowledge your understanding of and agreement with the instructions as set forth in this letter and the receipt of the enclosed files, by signing and dating a copy of this letter.

Please contact me if you need any further information or document. PPE will take no further action.

Very truly yours,

Douglas H. Pauley
